

PROGRAMME 2002/2003

2002

15th October Prof. Stephen Neale, from Rutgers
'What do we want from a theory of interpretation?'

22nd October Prof. Jo Wolff, from UCL
'Which Disadvantages Matter?'

29th October Prof. Paul Horwich, from CUNY
'The Value of Truth'

5th November Prof. Crispin Wright, from St. Andrews
'Warrant for Nothing'

19th November Dr. Sophie Botros, from Birkbeck
'"Beliefs Aim at Truth, Desires at their own Realization": genesis of a philosophical problem'

26th November Prof. Ted Honderich, from UCL
'After the Terror: A Book and Further Thoughts'

3rd December Prof. Anthony Savile, from KCL
'What drove Kant over the edge?'

10th December Dr. Veronique Munoz-Darde, from UCL
'Balancing Claims: Reasons and saving the greater number'

2003

14th January Dr. Sabina Lovibond, from Worcester College, Oxford
'Contemplation and the Source of Value'

21st January Dr. Kathleen Lennon, from Hull
'Body Image and Bodily Imaginaries'

28th January Dr. Francois Recanati, from Institut Nicod, Paris
'Literalism vs Contextualism'

4th February Prof. Jonathan Dancy, from Reading
'What do Reasons Do?'

11th February Dr. Nick Bostrom, from Oxford University, Harris Manchester College
'Are You Living in a Computer Simulation?'

25th February Prof. Dan Sperber, from Institut Nicod, Paris
'Seedless grapes: Nature and culture'

4th March Dr. Hallvard Lillehammer, from King's College, Cambridge
'Morality as Make-Believe'

11th March Dr. Jennifer Saul, from Sheffield
'On treating things as people: objectification, pornography, and the history of the vibrator'

18th March Prof. Hugh Mellor, from Darwin College, Cambridge
'What Does Decision Theory Tell Us?'

25th March Dr. Anita Avramides, from St. Hilda's College, Oxford
'Knowledge Externalism and the Problem of Other Minds'

29th April Dr. Catriona McKinnon, from York
'Cosmopolitan Hope'

6th May Dr. Fraser MacBride, from St. Andrews
'Structuralism Reconsidered'

13th May Prof. Alasdair MacIntyre, from Notre Dame
'Aquinas and the Facts of Moral Disagreement'

20th May Dr. Martin Kusch, from King's College, Cambridge
'Defending Kripke's Wittgenstein'

27th May Prof. Alan Millar, from Stirling
'The Explanatory Role of Normative Considerations'

Lectures are held in the College
Lecture Theatre, 3rd Floor, Malet St.

(unless otherwise advised - see Website)

20:00 – 21:30